

Pillars of Faith

2016 Capital Campaign

Chapel in the Pines Presbyterian Church

Mission & Service (Outreach) of Chapel in the Pines Presbyterian Church

CITP has a long tradition of supporting outreach projects and programs, locally and globally.

You may indicate on your pledge card if you wish for 10% of your Pillars of Faith pledge to support our outreach mission & service. Please be sure to check the outreach box on your pledge card if that is your intention.

Examples of outreach funding, as described in CITP's annual report recently sent to the congregation (in the Mission & Service section), are as follows:

Local Mission & Service

- Take and Eat Food Pantry
- Take and Read Book Club
- Take and Wear Clothes Closet
- Chatham Habitat for Humanity
- Chatham County Literacy Council
- Family Violence and Rape Crisis Center
- Communities in Schools of Chatham County
- The Farm at Penny Lane
- Circles Chatham
- Faith Connections on Mental Illness conference scholarships

Global Mission & Service

- A trauma healing ministry with BEE World
- Presbyterian Hunger Project
- Pachaj Health Center
- Chatham Literacy Council
- The Farm at Penny Lane
- CEDEPCA (Centro Evangélico de Estudios Pastorales en Centro América) through direct financial support and through the work of our mission coworker, Karla Koll, who is serving in Costa Rica.
- A second mission co-worker, Amanda Craft, serves as Regional Liaison for Mexico and Guatemala.
- Francisco Coll School, located at the Guatemala City garbage dump, provides quality education and nutritious food to more than 300 children in grades 1-6.
- Pachaj health clinic, Quetzaltenango, Guatemala, provides basic maternal and child health care and primary care services to residents of a rural area of Guatemala.
- Church World Services to support refugee resettlement worldwide.
- NEXT Church that fosters relationships among God's people.