

Chapel in the Pines Presbyterian Church Week in Pictures

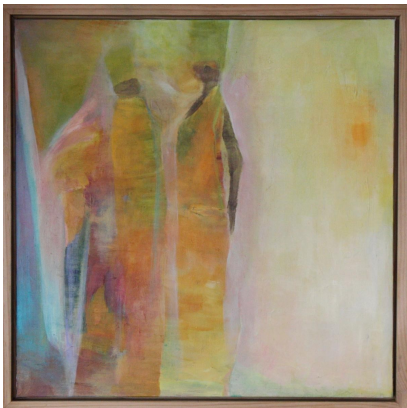

Watchword Art - Daisy Riggs

Sidewalk Art - Gemma Bejcek

Sidewalk Art - Oliver Bejcek

Painting by Sarah Graham.

Natural Art - Finn Yale.

Asa, Sam and Sadie Taylor-Troutman on an "explore" a la the great adventurer, Winnie the Pooh.

Wren Behr enjoying Sacred Art Table at home.

March 20, 2020

Dear Friends,

Here are some photos shared by folks from Chapel in the Pines - snippets of what some of us did this week as we adjust to this new (temporary) normal. I hope everyone is well and finding time to enjoy activities and people who bring you calm, joy, and comfort. I also hope you're able to connect with someone who might appreciate a call, card or text. Share a picture, a joke, a recipe, a memory of good times spent together and the promise of good times to come.

If you have any photos you'd like to share please email them to me at nmorelli@citppc.org. I know the kiddos aren't the only ones having some fun and being creative!

I leave you with this thought from Dr. Lindsay Jernigan. And as one of the "vulnerable" I thank you with all my heart for your efforts and caring. I also send my wishes for peace, comfort and of course (virtual) monster hugs!

Nana (Office Manager)

*"Try this perspective shift.
Instead of seeing "social distancing" and travel bans as panic, try seeing them as acts of mass cooperation intended to protect the collective whole. This plan is not about individuals going into hiding.
It's a global deep breath...an agreement between humans around the planet to be still. Be still, in hopes that the biggest wave can pass without engulfing too many of the vulnerable amongst us."
~ Dr. Lindsay Jernigan*

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid. -John 14:27