POEM OF PREPARATION Lift Every Voice and Sing (stanza 2)

Stony the road we trod,
bitter the chast'ning rod, felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
yet with a steady beat,
have not our weary feet,
come to the place for which our parents sighed?
we have come over a way that with tears has been watered, we have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered, out from the gloomy past, till now we stand at last where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

This hymn develops the imagery of Jesus' remark (Matthew 7:24-27/Luke 6:47-49) that those who believe in him and act on that belief are like someone who builds a house on a rock. The text is set to a tune created for it by a prolific 19th-century American composer and editor.
