1 WELCOME Andrew Taylor-Troutman

POEM OF PREPARATION "Transfiguration" by Malcolm Guite

For that one moment, 'in and out of time',
On that one mountain where all moments meet,
The daily veil that covers the sublime
In darkling glass fell dazzled at his feet.
There were no angels full of eyes and wings
Just living glory full of truth and grace.
The Love that dances at the heart of things
Shone out upon us from a human face
And to that light the light in us leaped up,
We felt it quicken somewhere deep within,
A sudden blaze of long-extinguished hope
Trembled and tingled through the tender skin.
Nor can this blackened sky, this darkened scar
Eclipse that glimpse of how things really are.

SEEKING PEACE WITH GOD AND WITH ONE ANOTHER

4 OPENING PRAYER

God of glory, your beloved son took a couple of friends with him to pray on the mountain. He revealed to them that his brightest glory was not through being raised up but by being made low — through service, through love, through the cross.

Light of light, who meets us in the broken places, shine the glory of Christ deep into our lives, that we may carry that Love over mountains and through valleys and point to the One whose brokenness is our salvation.

6 PRAYER OF CONFESSION from Many Voices: A Black Church Movement

Radiant God, source of light,
as you surrounded Jesus with your glory,
so you come to us in penetrating brightness.

You catch us off guard and expose our weakness.

We choose the limelight while you call us to explore the shadows and brighten the darkness.

We seek the spectacular while you bind up the broken in countless acts of mercy.

We seek to stay on the mountain or in a comfortable pew while you walk to the valleys of need.

Radiant God, fill us with light and courage to carry good news into all the corners of the world and to bring back the joy of your presence.

Assurance of Pardon

Passing of the Peace The peace of Christ be with you.
And also with you.

The first two stanzas of this 20th-century Transfiguration hymn guide singers through a contemplation of the disciples' experience of that event. The final stanza becomes a corporate prayer for enlightenment and for a renewed sense of commitment to doing God's will.
