Easter Feast

First line inspired by Susan Cyr

We eat. But the main thing is we gather. That's why it's called a "feast."
Sure, some of us are a little rough around the edges.
Call us your blessed & bruised neighbors, folks down on their luck, but—there's room for everyone at this table.

Pull up a chair. Break the bread. Pass the cup.
We're all being fed

a story that's good enough to eat—
how death couldn't hold him and he leapt
from the tomb one shining morning to meet his friends, just as they were.

The main thing is that we gather;
the feast will follow like Amen to the prayer.

The Lord is risen! He is risen indeed!

5 PRAYER OF INTERCESSION FOR EASTER SUNDAY

(Based on e.e. cummings' poem)

We thank thee God, for most this amazing day; when death has been swallowed up by life.

Into a blue true dream of sky, leapt our Lord from the tomb; lovingly he greets us, scatters fear and gloom.

This is God's "yes" to the world, the birthday of life and love; we proclaim the good news with gladness, and the hope that is within us.

Let the ears of our ears awake, the eyes of our eyes be opened; let us not look for the living among the dead. He has been raised and now reigns in glory, forever and ever.

- O sons and daughters of the King, whom heav’nly hosts in glory sing,
Today the grave has lost its sting!
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
- The strife is o’er, the battle done; now is the victor’s triumph won!
Now be the song of praise begun.
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
- The pow’rs of death have done their worst, but Christ their legions has dispers’d.
Let shouts of holy joy outburst.
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
- On this most holy day of days, be Laud and jubilee and praise;
To God your hearts and voices raise.
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
- 13 HYMN #248 “Christ Is Risen! Shout Hosanna!” HYMN TO JOY
- 14 SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION
- Invitation to the Lord’s Table
Great Prayer of Thanksgiving
Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right to give our thanks and praise and wonder. We are awestruck by the beauty and power of Christ's resurrection. Wonder invites praise and also humility; your ways, O Lord, are deeper than our ways, your thoughts are higher than ours. You call us to wonder in glad obedience and trust, living in holy curiosity about the hints of grace, which we can discover in creation and in ourselves. And so, we lift our voices, hearts, and minds with people of faith across time and space to wonder at your name:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Christ is alive! Love shall never die. The Risen Lord is neither bound to space or time, but saves and heals, here and now. Where war or violence, race or wealth, hatred or prejudice divide, Jesus suffers still, yet loves the more, and lives to keep hope alive in all. He brings the good news to every place and age, until earth and sky and ocean ring with joy and justice and praise.

For great is the mystery of our faith: Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

In this joyful feast, pour out your Holy Spirit upon this bread and cup, these signs and promises of your never-ending love. Let our Alleluias on most this amazing day feed our spirits, and your Spirit of grace nourish our souls. Let feathered hope sing in our hearts; let a garden of righteousness flower in our deeds; let every wall come down and every cage be broken so that all may be fed and be freed.

And so, we are bold to pray the prayer the Son taught:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Breaking of Bread and Pouring of the Cup

16 PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

The Lord is risen! He is risen indeed!

Thank you, O God, for feeding us with this story that is good enough to eat. Inspire us to take this story with us wherever we go, as a light in all places of despair and a song of hope in all times of trouble. Thank you, Gracious Giver; you satisfy our deepest hunger and give lasting life to all the world. Alleluia, amen!

WORSHIP NOTES

The Easter lilies in our sanctuary this morning are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of our lost members, family and friends.

Today we receive the One Great Hour of Sharing Offering. For over 70 years, this special offering has provided Presbyterians a way to share God's love with our neighbors in need around the world. In a world of disaster, hunger, and oppression, millions of people lack access to sustainable food sources, clean water, sanitation, education, and opportunity. The three programs supported by One Great Hour of Sharing - Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, the Presbyterian Hunger Program, and Self-Development of People - all work in different ways to serve individuals and communities in need. From initial disaster response to ongoing community development, their work fits together to provide people with safety, sustenance, and hope. To learn more about this offering and/or to make a donation online visit <https://specialofferings.pcusa.org/offering/oghs/>.

Large print worship bulletins, Bibles and hymnals are available from the ushers. Handicapped parking is available in front of the church with level access into the sanctuary.

Church information brochures, offering envelopes, note cards for prayer concerns and celebrations are inside the burgundy welcome folder in each chair back pocket. Please use what you need and return the folder to the chair pocket.

The sanctuary and fellowship hall are equipped with hearing loops, making it possible for anyone with a t-coil-enabled hearing aid to hear worship services and events in the fellowship hall clearly. Hearing Assistance headphones are also available from the ushers. Before you leave the sanctuary or fellowship hall, please turn off the receiver and place in the specially marked receptacle or return to an usher.

If you have a prayer request or celebration to share you may write it on an index card, found in the burgundy folders in the chair pockets. As you exit after worship, please leave your card in one of the offering baskets on the back credenzas. You may also email your requests to Andrew at andrew@citppc.org or nmorelli@citppc.org or call the office at 919-960-0616.

Nametags are made for people who register for worship. They are printed on Wednesday using the list from the previous Sunday. Please TAKE YOUR NAME TAG WITH YOU and wear it whenever you come to worship. If you come to worship and do not find a name tag, or if you lose yours, please contact Mary Donna Pond (mdpond@nc.rr.com).
