WELCOME/POEM OF PREPARATION

Andrew Taylor-Troutman

Perennial

For Jack Donovan, on the day of his commissioning

Now is the time of the sunny season,
of white and yellow daffodils, grinning.

And yet, before there was ever a bloom,
there was only a bulb, waiting to take root,

aided by a gardener's simple tools,
praying the rosary with dark soil.

Now unto whom all hearts lay wide open,
as a hole in the earth, yawning;

unto whom no secrets are hid,
praise be to Christ, who shall bloom bright again.

This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it!

and renew a right spirit within me.

to experience the mystery of death and life through the lens of grace.

By your steadfast love, help us walk this journey of faith.
Amen.

"Take Up Your Cross, the Savior Said"

BOURBON

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

by Rev. Dr. Peter Marshall, Chaplain of U.S. Senate, on March 17, 1947

Lord Jesus, we turn in confidence unto Thee, since Thou was tempted in all points as we are, and yet were without sin.

Help us, that we may obtain victory over our temptations. We feel pain that we have so little power in our lives, and so often fall at the same old hurdles. Sometimes we grow discouraged and are filled with doubts when we see so little evidence of growth in grace, in faith, and in spiritual perception.

We know that we are not what we ought to be; and we know that we are not yet what we will be; but we thank Thee that we are not what we once were.

Help us to remember that they who wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength.

OFFERTORY "When We Are Tempted to Deny Your Son"
Adult Choir by Zebulon Highben

When we are tempted to deny your son,
because we fear the anger of the world,
and we are few who bear the insults buried,
your will, O God, be done.

When we are tempted to betray your Son,
because he leads us in a harder way,
and makes demands we do not want to pay,
your will, O God, be done.

When we forget the cross that held your Son,
and would avoid the burden of this life,
the cry for justice and an end to strife,
your will, O God, be done.

When doubt obscures the vict'ry of your Son,
and faith is weak and all resolve has fled,
help us to know him risen from the dead;
your will, O God, be done.

PASTORAL PRAYER/LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.
