Our Preacher This Sunday is The Rev'd Dr. Craig Troutman!

We are honored to have The Rev'd Dr. Craig Troutman as our preacher this Sunday! Craig holds degrees from Moravian Theological Seminary (MDiv) and Columbia Theological Seminary (DMin). After 40 years of ministry, including 37 years as pastor of the Raleigh Moravian Church, Craig retired in June of 2022. He is married to Anna. Their family also includes their sons Andrew (married to Ginny) and John (married to Kelly). Four grandchildren (Sam, Asa, Sadie, and Clement) wonderfully complete their immediate family. Craig and Anna live in Raleigh, and in retirement have found the CITP faith community to be a very welcoming place!

OF SOLAR PANELS AT CITP!

What an awesome decision it was to purchase solar panels! According to our inverter website dashboard, on July 17, 2019 at 9:15am we started producing our first amount of solar energy. Since then as of last week, morning we have replaced enough electricity to prevent 321,775 pounds of CO<sub>2</sub> from being released into the atmosphere if it needed to be produced by a fossil fuel plant. To pull that much CO<sub>2</sub> out of the air would have required 2431 trees. This is AMAZING!!! Let's just keep making smart decisions that affect our community and our planet.

THIS SUNDAY - FINALLY - DAWN LANDES IN CONCERT HERE AT CITP!!!!

This Sunday, we welcome Dawn Landes back to CITP to perform beautiful music at 6pm. The concert will be in the pavilion - if there is no rain. If it is raining, we'll move it into the sanctuary. We recommend carpooling and arriving early since our parking is limited. We also encourage you to bring chairs you can sit on if it is indeed outdoors.

We WELCOME all people into our community of of faith.

We WORSHIP God with gratitude for the grace given to all people through Jesus Christ.

We WITNESS the love of Christ through our gifts of time, talents, and resources as we grow together in our faith.

WOMEN'S CLOTHING DRIVE FOR BENEVOLENCE FARM

Benevolence Farm, one of CITP's mission partners, is an admirable program in Alamance County that provides support to women who are leaving incarceration to start a new life. It provides housing, employment on the farm making herbs for self-care products (available at Weaver Street), community resources, and advocacy. Cyndi Christopher and Ann Turnbull are co-champions for Benevolence Farm for the Mission & Service Committee. After wearing prison garb for years, THE WOMEN NEED CLOTHING. We invite you to bring clean, gently-used women's clothing with no tears or stains that you are no longer using to the Gathering Room at the church BY AUGUST 10. Your donations will be delivered to Benevolence Farm at the end of the month. Please provide your name with your clothing if you would like a receipt to complete for a taxable contribution. If you have questions, please call or text Ann Turnbull at 785-218-7611.

Invited

NEW! All are invited to attend a two hour documentary of Carolyn Crowders' "At the River" at 10am, July 18 at Pittsboro Presbyterian.

When did you realize that what you were being taught about race as a white Southerner was wrong? Filmmaker Carolyn Crowder, raised in Montgomery, Alabama, during the Civil Rights era, set out to ask this question of Presbyterian ministers she knew who had taken stands during those turbulent times. Often isolated in small towns in the Deep South, some chose to be brave in spite of the dangerous circumstances. For the feature length documentary, Crowder traveled throughout the Southeast interviewing ministers, now in their 80's and 90's, about their experiences and what it took to go against the racist currents during those hard days within is over, you get to take them home with you or give them to someone to brighten their day.
