Our Preacher This Sunday is The Rev'd Craig Troutman!

We are honored to have The Rev'd Dr. Craig Troutman as our preacher this again this Sunday! Craig holds degrees from Moravian Theological Seminary (MDiv) and Columbia Theological Seminary (DMin). After 40 years of ministry, including 37 years as pastor of the Raleigh Moravian Church, Craig retired in June of 2022. Craig is married to Anna. Their family also includes their sons Andrew (married to Ginny) and John (married to Kelly). Four grandchildren (Sam, Asa, Sadie, and Clement) wonderfully complete their immediate family. Craig and Anna live in Raleigh, and in retirement have found the CITP faith community to be a very welcoming place!

We will have childcare at this service.

Benevolence Farm

WHERE SECOND CHANCES GROW NATURALLY

Benevolence Farm is another one of our mission partners!

WE ARE HOLDING A WOMEN'S CLOTHING DRIVE!

If you don't know much about the organization,
here is a little information from their website:

Their Mission

Benevolence Farm seeks to cultivate leadership, promote sustainable livelihoods, and reap structural change with individuals impacted by the criminal legal system in North Carolina.

Their Vision

To create a more equitable, just, and nurturing world for women and the communities they transform.

At Benevolence Farm, they believe that we are more than our worst mistakes. We all have the right to safety, housing, food, healing, and connection rooted in dignity and self-autonomy.

Their flagship program – transitional housing and employment – provides a space for women returning home from prison and jail to process, heal, and prepare for what's next in a rural setting surrounded by nature. Benevolence

Farm is one of the few places across the state that accepts women of all criminal convictions. After each woman's arrival, she sets her own goals and staff works alongside her to identify the right resources to succeed. Because each resident leads the way in her reentry, they see about 15% of their alumni return to incarceration within two years, and almost all who are re-incarcerated are for a technical violation regarding their probation or parole.

Their primary program areas for formerly incarcerated communities across rural North Carolina include:

- Safe and secure housing
- Living wage employment via our social enterprises
- Trauma-informed community resources
- Advocacy and outreach

(The information above is from the Benevolence Farm's website.)

WOMEN'S CLOTHING DRIVE INFORMATION:

Ann Turnbull and Cyndi Christopher are collecting clean, gently used and new clothing items for the women of Benevolence Farm. Many of their clients go directly there from incarceration and have none! Please bring your donations of clothing to the Gathering Room (former nursery) at the church on Sunday or during regular office hours (Mon-Thurs 9am-3pm) BY AUGUST 10.

Feel free to share this information with your friends and neighbors. We'd love to have a nice sized delivery for them next month!

Contact: If you have questions, please call or text Ann Turnbull at 785-218-7611.

We WELCOME all people into our community of of faith.

We WORSHIP God with gratitude for the grace given to all people through Jesus Christ.

We WITNESS the love of Christ through our gifts of time, talents, and resources as we grow together in our faith.

ABOUT REALM

We no longer have the church directory available in a PDF format. The only access to gain contact information for fellow parishioners is to set up a Realm account. If you are a member, you may have access to it! But first you need an invitation from Teresa (admin@citppc.org). If you have not set up your Realm account, let Teresa know and she'll help you with that! If you have an account but can't remember your password or login, there is a link where you can reset it. Click on the orange button below for quick access to the login!

Summer Choir season! If you love to sing and have avoided joining the choir due to the commitment of the regular Adult Choir, Summer Choir might be the option for which you've been looking. We will just get together 30 minutes before the start of worship, at 10am Sunday mornings and rehearse an anthem in the sanctuary. You don't have to commit to do it every week. We need voices - and yours is invited!

Remaining Summer Choir Dates:

- August 11, 18, 25

PLEASE NOTE: There is no Women's Study Group July 30.

The Women's Study Group gets together every week in the Fellowship Hall's conference room on Tuesdays at 10am. They have guest speakers, discuss books, poetry and share in delightful fellowship together.

They are taking the next two weeks off, but will begin August by reading and discussing "What Makes You Come Alive (A Spiritual Walk with Howard Thurman)" by Lerita Coleman Brown.

All women are welcome!

Youth Events/News

Our high school youth group and their leader has been at a Youth Conference in Montreat this week and will return home Saturday. We ask for prayers for safe travels home and continued spiritual growth for them while at Montreat.

Our regular weekly meetings are on break for the summer, but look for emails that might include special youth events.
