ENDOWMENT FUND

*We know about today.
What about tomorrow?*

Chapel in the Pines Presbyterian Church, Inc.
Chapel Hill, NC

What is an Endowment?

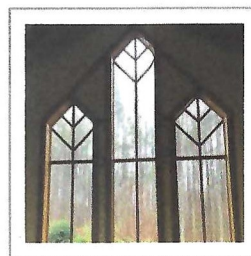

- Endowment funds provide a steady stream of income, no matter how the markets are performing.
- Income generated by an endowment assists the church forever with new and ongoing initiatives.
- Endowment gifts are an expression of our faith, providing perpetual support outside of our annual operating budget.
- An endowment gift may provide a tax benefit to the donor depending on their circumstances; consult with financial advisors for guidance.
- Endowment gifts cannot be revoked.
- CITP's Endowment Fund is with the Presbyterian Foundation which has managed church endowments for centuries with a professional, proven track record of success.
- Once established, an endowment gift needs no more maintenance by donors, church leadership, nor staff; the Foundation is responsible for investment performance, reporting, and distribution of income as established in a legally-binding contract.

Why Now?

- Members who are re-evaluating their wills and reviewing bequest plans have inquired if we have a formal endowment.
- Projects outside the realm of our operating budget could be considered for funding, when identified as a need, via endowment income, rather than ignored or delayed or via a special fundraising campaign.
- Our church's demographics lean toward successful endowment outcomes.

How Can I Participate?

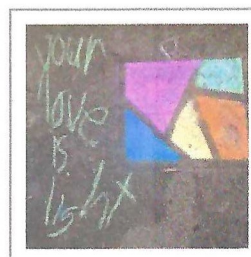

Review Your Financial Situation

Discuss with your family, lawyer, or financial advisor your desire to make a transformative gift to grow CITP's Endowment Fund.

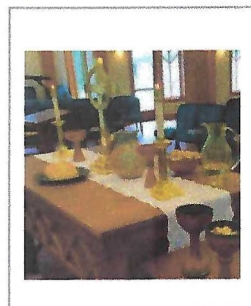

After determining an amount that you and they feel comfortable with, discuss with our pastor and/or treasurer.

Encourage Your CITP Friends to Make a Gift, too!

For the Endowment Fund to grow and flourish, CITP's congregation and friends can join in, ensuring a vibrant financial future for the church and its initiatives. Suggest that they, too, review their estate plans to consider how CITP fits with their final decisions.

Questions?

Do not hesitate to inquire with the pastor or treasurer when questions arise about the Endowment Fund at CITP. This new initiative will lead our church's future in exhilarating ways. So, please ask and let us help you along the way. God bless you and your family as you prayerfully consider this opportunity.
