WELCOME/POEM OF PREPARATION

Andrew Taylor-Troutman

Funny Dove

I left my notebook on top of the car, the one in which I'd been writing a poem, and distracted by many other thoughts, drove off only to hear, in a mile or so, the bumps of the notebook skipping across the roof, and I looked into the rearview just in time to watch it unfurl its pages like wings and land gracefully upon the road.
So this poem is trying to say something about attention, inspiration, and if you happen upon a funny dove in flight with paper feathers, you should savor the sight.

This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it!
