Changing Translations of the Lord's Prayer

Smiling, Daniel rose from the piano to tell me that he'd just gotten
the Lord's Prayer memorized,
when suddenly I changed it.

My concern was not a difference
of "debts" and "trespasses" per se
but rather an issue with the phrase
"Lead us not into temptation,"

which someone could interpret
to mean God might be tempted to evil.
I prefer "Save us from the time of trial,"
for difficulties come, as the life of Christ

plainly showed, and it's holy to pray
for saving grace under duress.
Plus, instead of saying things mere rote,
a change keeps all of us on our toes.

LIGHTING OF THE CANDLES

This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it!

In life and in death we belong to God. Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, we trust in the one triune God, the Holy One of Israel, whom alone we worship and serve. With believers in every time and place, we rejoice that nothing in life or in death can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

SEND GREETINGS TO OUR ONLINE WORSHIPPERS! If you would like to greet our online worshippers, you are invited to the front of the sanctuary (between piano and Communion table) 10 minutes before or immediately after our service today. We do not show the congregation during worship, in order to respect individual privacy, but offer this way for those who wish to greet friends at home. Children may participate in these greetings with their parents or guardians.

The flowers beautifying our sanctuary this morning were donated by Deborah Kay Hughes in memory of Jack, Cathy, and James Hughes. Thank you, Deborah Kay.

After worship, Andrew will greet worshippers at the door as usual; however, if you would like to participate in a community discussion about the worship service, he will meet you in the Hall for All. This is a time to ask questions and also process the material of the sermon, prayers, music, and other parts of the liturgy. There is a Zoom option as well so that online worshippers can also participate.

All interested children are invited to join a choir that will sing the call to worship at both services on November 23. They will also sing on a Sunday in December (date to be decided soon). Short rehearsals following the 9:15 service (or 10:00 combined services) each week begin October 26 and continue until mid-December. Children of all ages are welcome!
