PASTOR'S DESK

Beauty is Basketball, Basketball Beauty

The Bible gushes, "How beautiful … are the feet of those who bring good news" (Isaiah 52:7; Romans 10:15). Of course, beauty is in the eye of the beholder. Maybe you would describe feet with other adjectives.

One thing's certain: these ancient words were probably not a prophetic allusion to basketball shoes squeaking on hardwood.

But my 11-year-old son has begun rec league basketball. He is the youngest on his team. The kids are still prone to helter-skelter play that more closely resembles bumper cars, if bumper cars could hoist wild three-point shots.

But toward the end of practice, a teammate set a solid screen at the top of the key, then rolled to the basket, and the dribbler found him with a bounce pass. The kid missed the open layup. But the coach still yelled, "That was beautiful!"

In hope,
Andrew
